The Protestant Interpretation of Bible Prophecy – The Biblical Alternative

And now have I spoken unto you, before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye might believe. John 14:29 (1599 Geneva Bible)

Bible Prophecy was given to increase our Faith as the events foretold came to pass. Preterism doesn't predict anything and the predictions of Futurism never come to pass. Neither of these false interpretations can ever increase faith.

This site is intended to assist you in rediscovering the traditional Historicist interpretation of Bible Prophecy. This interpretation kindled the Protestant Reformation and sparked the Great Awakening. It was the prophetic faith of our fathers.

Historicism exposes the Rapture, ecumenical, and future Anti Christ promoters for what they are: supporters of the true Anti Christ, the office of the Papacy.

It reveals that most of the prophecies in Daniel and Revelation have been fullfilled. As your eyes open you will be strengthened and encouraged. True prophecy glorifies the God that sees the end from the beginning!

The ecumencial movement is threatening every major doctrine of The Reformation. It would usher in a new dark age. But Bible prophecy reveals a different conclusion. It is time to wake up and trim our lamps for there are great rewards to those that overcome the lukewarmness and blindness of this present generation.

As you read, ask God for the annointing of his Wisdom. Discernment is His gift to those who ask in Faith.

We have also a most sure word of the Prophets, to the which ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the day star arise in your hearts. – II Peter 1:19 (1599 Geneva Bible)
